

AKA PRODIASHVILI

Aka Prodiashvili introduces a new character in his SS21 collection - Beverly Hills native video game geek. Inspired by Mortal Combat, Matrix and all his favorite fictional characters, this collection is nothing short of an extraordinary - combining fantasy with drag; Sci-fi theme with sexiness.

Voluptuous dresses are now cut in body conscious silhouettes. Wide leg pants are balanced out with tiny bra tops, all cut in latex - dominant in Aka's collections. Rooted to the label's DNA floral capes are definitely the collection's key pieces and the most daring of the collection.
